Ed. Democrat.

Charges moderate—and the most satisfactory reference given, when required.

DISAPPOINTED AND BELATED.—We have been disappointed about getting the paper for this issue. We get paper but it was the wrong size and before we could get other it was too late for us to get out on regular time. We have been worse disappointed about it than any of our readers will be on account of not getting their paper at the regular time.

ADOLPH MYERS, has just returned from the Eastern cities with a full and elegant assortment of Jewelry, Clocks, Watches, and almost every article in his line of Business—useful and ornamental. His beautifully arranged Store presents a dazzling display of rich and valuable articles, besides others less expensive—that the wants of all may be suited.

Ladies, call at Myers's, and look at the charming array of diamonds, garnets, torquays, &c., elegantly set, and many other articles, selected with a special view to please you.

Myers is a liberal, reliable and pleasant gentleman to deal with—and his customers leave his Store, pleased not only with his prompt and polite attention to their wants, but with the bargains he is always sure to give them.

Further particulars in his advertisement next week.

Look Out Democrats!—Old Maitling has announced his intention to issue LIVING CIRCULAR, which is now doubtless printed. Democrats are prepared to repel the lies contained in it. We say to the Democrats be vigilant—look out for everything and anything.
